R - receptionist

O - operator

Just Me

Grown-ups always want to know,

"What do you want to be when you grow up?"

I'm never sure what to say, my answer changes every day.

May be I'll be a detective on a TV show.

I might be a disk jockey on the radio.

I'll be a pilot and fly through the sky.

I'll be a dancer and leap way up high.

I'm never sure what to say, my answers change every day.

I'll be an author and write a great book.

I'll be a chef – the world's greatest cook.

I'll be a sailor and sail on the sea.

I think for now that I'll just be me.

Discussion

- What is this poem about?
- What professions have you heard in this poem?
- What are we going to speak about today?

Definitions

T: Now you will work in groups. Look at the pictures and give definitions of these jobs. Follow the example.

(E.g. A cook is someone who prepares food.)

What do you want to be after graduating? -

You have heard this question many times during your school year. Perhaps, it was difficult for you to give a definite answer earlier.

But you understand that the time to choose your future profession is coming.

Marta, have you decided what do you want to be?

I want to be...

Some people often say to me:

"Have you decided

what you want to be?"

I usually answer, "I don't know",

But it isn't really so.

I want to be an Olympic race,

I want to see the Earth from space,
I want to travel to Katmandu,
I want to be rich and famous, too.
I want to be on Hollywood's screen,
I want to invent a new machine,
I want to be clever and wise.
I want to win the Nobel prize.
But most of all, I want to be
Healthy and strong and nice
